Detailed Action

Decision on Appeal

1. The Examiner accepts the decision on appeal under 35 U.S.C. 134 from the final rejection of claims 1, 4 and 11-13 on September 22, 2005. Claims 1 and 3-11 are allowed. Claims 12 and 13 are rejected. Claim 2 is cancelled.

Explanation of Rejection

Claim rejection – 35 U.S.C. 101

2. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

3. Claims 12 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Claim 12 includes a “computer program operable to” configure a processing unit to perform a method of generating test bit-streams as claimed in claim 1. The instant claim 13 recites “a carrier medium comprising a computer program as claimed in claim 12” seems to be consistent with a reading of claim 12 as not requiring that the “program” be embodied in a computer readable medium. Claim 12 does not require that the program be embodied in a computer-readable medium that is encoded with the program. The claims would be interpreted as representing a computer listing or an abstract idea, and therefore is not statutory. See Diamond v. Diehr, 450 US 175 (1981). 450 US 175. Diamond, Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks v. Diehr et al.

Allowance

4. Claims 1 and 3-11 are allowed. In reference to claims 1 and 11: the Examiner reiterates the Board's decision on appeal that Panaro (U.S. Patent 5,731,839) does not teach a method of generating test bit-stream decoder arranged to decode bit-streams generated accordance with a predefined syntax, in which the test code being arranged when executed to generate a test bit-stream dependent on the value assigned to a plurality of variables where each variable having a number of interesting values.

The remaining claims 3-10 are dependent upon claim 1 and contain further limitations.

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
